

2008-2009

Russia & Newly Independent States across Eurasia

Uncommon information. Extraordinary places. Exceptional service.

For additional information on books, periodicals,
and online content, visit www.eastview.com.

The UDB Universal

The Universal Database™ platform offers well thought-out advantages for your library and users. Some advantages are obvious; some become apparent with ease of setup and use. The UDB™ is optimized to help libraries build efficient electronic collections and support library systems integration.

Customize and Optimize for Your Library

- ⌚ Build your own collections from individual online titles
- ⌚ Linking options for Online Public Access
- ⌚ IP/password access to your choice of standard or custom collections
- ⌚ Stable URLs for linking on a database level or on individual title and article levels
- ⌚ Mirror servers in U.S. and Russia
- ⌚ Usage reports – certified counter™ compliance

Users/Researchers Work Efficiently

- ⌚ Interface functions are optimized for specific content types
- ⌚ Browse by specific title and issue
- ⌚ UDBs provide up-to-date options for today's wired and wireless users
- ⌚ Transliteration, Russian, Ukrainian or English language searches
- ⌚ Virtual Russian and Ukrainian keyboards displays available for ease of input

* UDB and Universal Database are international trademarks of East View Information Services, Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA.

Database™ Advantage

East View

Universal Databases [log in] [log out]

main | search | browse titles | help | librarian's corner |

Minneapolis, US

All sources > Central Newspapers (UDG-COM) > Ogonek

Ogonek

Subtitle: Publitsisticheskiy, literaturno-khudozhestvennyy i illyustrirovannyiy zhurnal
0131-0097

ISSN: Russian

Language: S2

Frequency: Moskva

City: Russia

Country: AOZT "Izdatsentr Ogonek"

Publisher: 1889

Year first published: A national magazine for families of social topics and fiction.

Description: Full text

Data format: 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006

Access to individual issues: #043, Oct 23, 2006

The latest issue:

Permanent edition address: <http://ibiblio.eastview.com/source/ed/publication.jsp?id=2780>

Search this publication

All years Russian/English Transliteration

Use of this material is strictly limited by our Usage Agreement

basic search | advanced search | browse titles | help
Subscription Terms and Conditions

©2006 East View Information Services | All rights reserved.

Search through a single source or all the databases to which your institution subscribes. The multilingual interface makes finding fast.

Expedite research with the easy-to-use and convenient UDB™ interface.

Newspapers and journals from East View's collections are available either in Universal Database™ aggregations or individually as e-journals.

Russian Central and Regional News

Russian Central Newspapers (UDB-COM)

Here is same-day full-text access to more than 60 of the most influential daily and weekly Russian newspapers. 2.8 million articles with archives dating back to 1980 are online in this exclusive Universal Database™. Included are current official sources such as Rossiiskaia gazeta, independent media and partisan publications and several English-language newspapers such as Moscow Times. Archives of Izvestia are an important part of the database.

Russian Regional Newspapers (UDB-REG)

Access to 108 newspapers from 7 federal districts of the Russian Federation provide valuable, often hard to find news. Coverage includes editions from diverse geographic areas such as the enclave of Kaliningrad, Vladivostok in the Far East, the northern Caucasus, and oil-rich Siberia.

Russian/NIS Newswires (UDB-NEWS)

Research breaking news – even before it becomes news – as it is filed over the wire service bulletins of Russia and newly independent states. UDB-NEWS provides near real time access to full text transcripts of press conferences, important speeches and statements in Russian and English.

Archive Collections of Russian Central and Regional News

The Current Digest of the Post-Soviet Press (UDB-CD)

The Current Digest offers weekly selections in English-language translations of the most important articles from major Russian newspapers. In print since 1949, The Current Digest is a leading publication in the field of Soviet/Russian area studies. Now online, weekly updates offer insights on economics, politics and political reform, public health, privatization, foreign policy/international affairs and other social, cultural and legal issues.

Researchers have relied on the consistent objectivity and accurate translations of The Current Digest for over 57 years.

Argumenty i Fakty Archive

Argumenty i Fakty – a weekly newspaper based in Moscow – once had the largest circulation of any periodical in the world. In 1990 it was entered in the Guinness book of records for its print run of 33.5 million. During the Gorbachev era, Argumenty i Fakty became one of the most important newspapers in the Soviet Union and a major newspaper publicizing Gorbachev's policy of glasnost. This database offers access to the first issue in 1983.

NEW! International Affairs. The Complete Collection.

Published in English, International Affairs has delivered timely analysis and unique insight into foreign policy and security issues since 1954. This archive of world events from the Kremlin's perspective is now available online from the very first issue. Leading Russian policymakers and commentators have contributed articles on foreign policy and diplomacy in Russia, interrelations of Russia between foreign countries, the economies and policies of neighboring states, previously unpublished documents on foreign policy of the USSR, and more.

Russian Government, Law and Military Information

Governmental Publications (UDB-GOV)

From UDB-GOV researchers can monitor Russian lawmaking in progress. The wide selection of sources available includes Presidential decrees and government documents, stenographic records of Duma hearings, draft legislation, official resolutions, votes cast.

Military & Security Periodicals (UDB-MIL)

Monitor developments in the Russian armed forces and international security affairs through nearly 50 independent and official military and security periodicals and regional military district papers. UDB-MIL covers a variety of critically important issues from nuclear proliferation to hazing in the Russian Army.

Available only from East View.

A collage of three Russian publications. On the left is the cover of the magazine 'СУДЬЯ' (SUD'YA) from March 2008, featuring a portrait of a woman and text about the judiciary. In the center is the front page of the newspaper 'РОССИЙСКАЯ ГАЗЕТА' (Rossiyskaya Gazeta) with various news articles and photos. On the right is a vertical newspaper clipping with several columns of text and small images.

KODEKS

Russian Law Database

Kodeks Law Database is a major source for Russian legislation – thousands of documents going back to 1991. It includes acts issued by approximately 200 executive, legislative, and judicial branches of Russia with international law and the all important commentary. Kodeks databases are updated daily.

Russian and CIS Statistical and Demographic Publications

Statistical Publications (UDB-STAT)

Optimized for searching and browsing statistical data, UDB-STAT covers publications, reports and data sets from Russian Federal State Statistics Service, its regional bodies and the CIS Statistical Committee. Users will benefit from searching within reports, tables and graphs, transliteration and much more with tables of contents in English. A premiere value of UDB-STAT is the complete, 14 volume, 2002 All Russian Census in Russian and English.

2002 All-Russian Population Census (UDB-Census)

The 2002 All-Russian Population Census, published by the State Committee on Statistics of the Russian Federation, is the first official demographic snapshot of modern Russia. This exhaustive online database contains nearly 13,000 pages of rich primary source data, translated into English by East View. Our easy-to-use interface will help you quickly search and locate statistical detail such as population size and composition, vital statistics, education, economic activity, households, housing stock and tenure, and culture.

East View's Universal Database™ collections are designed to support the work of academic institutions and government agencies.

Bibliography, Social Science, and Humanities

Bibliographic Publications (UDB-BIB)

From information collected by the Book Chamber of the Russian Federation, you can now access the most comprehensive bibliographic database in Russia. Based on more than 50 years of information collection, UDB-BIB allows searching by subject (using Russian subject heading system: UDK), author, geographic indexes, source, type of publication, and time period. The library-oriented interface provides easy access to current and archival issues.

Social Sciences and Humanities Journals (UDB-EDU)

UDB-EDU makes primary research for Slavic studies easier than ever.

We now serve 82 titles, including vaunted "thick journals," popular literary editions, independent scholarly publications and all social science journals published by the Russian Academy of Sciences. Full-text of print editions is reproduced with original pagination, end-notes and foot-notes.

Libraries, Archives, Museums (UDB-LIB)

Delve into Russian culture from a new perspective. This database serves researchers a wide range of resources – current and archived – discussing the preservation of Russia's national cultural legacy. A gem of the collection, Otechestvennye arkhivy (National Archives) represents Russian archival institutions. Ideas, news and thought leaders are presented in library journals from the corners of Russia: from Moscow to the former capital St. Petersburg, from Ukraine to the Far East region. In addition to all this, the journal Muzei (Museum) supports the collections thematic line of cultural preservation.

AAASS NewsNet Digital Archive

Access over 45 years of Slavic studies scholarship news online in full-text and full-image with AAASS NewsNet Digital Archive. This is a repository of every page published in NewsNet, the newsmagazine of the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies, from 1960 to 2006. It may be the best electronic resource for documenting the evolution of Western scholarship in the fields of Slavic, Russian, Central European, and Eurasian studies. The AAASS NewsNet Digital Archive has been digitized in association with the AAASS organization and NewsNet journal by East View.

Medicine, Science and Technology

Medicine and Public Health (UDB-MED)

Numerous medical and health publishers are at the core of this database. The research covers such problems as public health, infectious diseases, general practice, pharmacology, pediatrics, nursing, skin diseases and more.

East View is dedicated to providing timely full-text access to current newspapers and journals from formerly inaccessible sources.

Historical and Cultural Journal Collections

Vestnik Evropy (UDB-VE)

In original Old Russian and modern orthography.

One of Russia's most influential literary and political journal, published from 1802 – 1830, is now available in full scale digitization. Students and researchers will be able to view both the original Old Russian and a new version adapted into modern Russian orthography with support of the Institute of Russian Language in Moscow. Vestnik Evropy is highly regarded among scholars of researchers of Russian history.

Voprosy Istorii (UDB-VI)

1926 – Present

Here is unprecedented access to history through Russian eyes. The online collection includes 200,000 pages appearing in 950 consecutive issues. In Voprosy istorii distinguished historians contribute analyses with an historical perspective. You will also find portraits, journalism, and memoirs. Voprosy istorii is recognized for archival materials, including those recently declassified.

Voprosy Literatury (UDB-VL)

1957 – Present

Voprosy literature was founded in 1957, soon after the 20th Congress of the Communist party of the Soviet Union. It soon became one of the typical examples of the post-Stalinist "thaw" in ideology and evolved into a major discussion platform for literary critics and scholars.

For many years this journal has been offering its readers articles on the history of world and Russian literature, theory of literature and current literary and cultural situation in the country. It also features roundtable discussions involving the best minds among the literati as well as publications based on archives of prominent Russian writers and literary scholars.

Labirint

Labirint provides 25,000 biographies of Russian politicians, officials and business people. Includes descriptions and guides to all federal government bodies, administrative units of the Russian Federation, major businesses, political organizations and federal elections at all levels. Hypertext links create revealing connections. Accurate, thorough and deep information makes Labirint indispensable to researchers. Labirint is used by the top agencies of the Russian Federation, embassies, researchers and scholars of contemporary Russian politics as well as mass media, banks and insurance companies. Updated monthly.

Regional Databases

The Baltics (UDB-BALT)

This database pulls together the most widely read Russian-language newspapers in Estonia and Lithuania, a leading newspaper in the Baltic region devoted to business and economic matters, and the only pan-Baltic English-language newspaper in the region. The database is comprehensive, timely and provides in-depth coverage on current affairs, economic development, banking and finance, culture, and science. Particular attention is devoted to ethnic issues.

The Caucasus (UDB-CAU)

Now more than ever, monitoring today's news in Armenia, Azerbaijan and Georgia demands immediate access to a wide range of important publications. UDB-CAU offers a rich collection of authoritative periodicals in Russian and English.

Central Asia (UDB-CAS)

Authoritative Russian and English edition of newspapers from Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan are served from this easy-to-use database. UDB-CAS covers topics on economics, culture and leisure, official legislation, points of view from the opposition, business and investment.

Ukrainian Publications (UDB-UKR)

Welcome to the world's only online database devoted exclusively to newspapers, journals and bibliographic titles published in Ukraine. The news from Kiev, Kharkiv, Donetsk and Simferopol, 37 important titles, is at your fingertips in Ukrainian, Russian or English. Available only from East View.

Company Headquarters
East View Information Services, Inc.
10601 Wayzata Boulevard
Minneapolis, MN 55305-1526 USA
Telephone: 1.952.252.1201
Fax: 1.952.252.1202
US Toll-free: 1.800.477.1005
www.eastview.com

Russia Office
IVIS, LTD.
Azovskaya ul. dom 6 bldg. 3
117149 Moscow
RUSSIAN FEDERATION
Telephone: 7.495.777.6557